

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1898.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "nothing" free any more than a merchant can lose over his counter two sets of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

WE MAKE IT A POINT

To have our best lines, in all our departments come in the middle of August. In a few days many of our young friends will resume their studies—some at home, others in foreign educational institutions. It has always been our pride to send the boys well dressed. No matter what town or city they go to Heelingers' clothes wearers are the proper dressed youngsters. For this fall we made greater efforts than ever to supply ourselves, and consequently you, with the noblest clothing that fashion subscribes. Our fall suits and overcoats are the highest types of merchant tailoring art. Our stock represents the opinion of those at the acknowledged leading houses in the country. Our line of shirts, underwear, hats, ties, etc., is simply great. If the young man needs a nice trunk we can supply you.

SHOES.

The results in our Shoe Department, though not a year old, are gratifying to us and fully as much to our shoe patrons. "The most comfortable pair of shoes I've worn for years," is the universal expression of those that wear them. Our $2, $2.50 and $3.00 and $3.50 Stoughton French Calf Common Sense Shoes are the best in the market. Every pair we sell is made for us and warranted to give satisfaction. Money refunded if they don't. Our high-class shoes, such as Vici Kid, Russian Calf, Patent Leather, Corbuan, etc., all of which are specially made for us by the Burlington people, Brockton, Mass., all the long felt wants in Mayville's shoe trade. We are daily receiving our fall stock in these lines. If your summer shoes are about worn out and you think it late to buy lightweight footwear we can fit you in the coming style of Fall Shoes. Respectfully,

HECHINGER & CO.
LEADERS IN FINE CLOTHING AND SHOE.

HERE AND THERE

Life is a conundrum To earnest, life and up. And we never get the answer Until we give it up.

—St. Alphonsus Bellamy.

Mr. Andrew M. Rogers has accepted a position as salesman at Heelingers & Co's.

A. C. and O. accommodation killed a $300 mare for Jacob Herman who resides near Dover.

Mr. W. C. Snye will soon move from this city to Dover, where he will teach in the public school next session.

Mr. John Duley yesterday conducted the exercises at a Sunday school basket meeting at Ellis Grove, a few miles North of Aberdeen.

Private Polk Hicks, Jr., who is home from Camp Corbin, Lexington, Ill. with malarial fever, is improving, and will soon be able to get out.

Mr. P. J. Gorman, son-in-law of Mr. George W. Oldham of this city, has bought a half interest in the Clarendon-Leland Hotel, Lexington.

The Young Ladies Drill Corps of Bellevue, consisting of twenty-four young ladies, will be in the big parade on Labor Day, Monday, September 5th.

The many friends of Miss Myrtle Pilon, who was so seriously burned several days ago, will be pleased to learn that she is getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Misses Cora and Bertha Ort, Marie Canish, Emma Atmeyer, Miss Harrell of Portsmouth and Mr. Douglas W. Ort composed a general party making the round trip to Pittsburgh on the Queen City.

J. D. Powers of Carlisle, through Messrs. Hanson Kennedy, Williams and T. L. Elden, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the Federal Court at Frankfort. He asks that he be relieved of his indebtedness to the extent of $6,000, and says that he has no assets.

Edward Porter was on Saturday arrested at the Germantown Fair by Deputy Sheriff James R. Robertson for selling liquor without license. He was held for appearance before the Grand Jury, and it is probable that your Uncle Sam may take a whack at him.

The Rev. H. Clay Morrison, who has withdrawn membership from the Southern Methodist Church, takes occasion to jump on the book agents of that Church for alleged deception in securing the passage of the publishing house claim of over $200,000 through the Senate.

The rotten sensationalists of the city papers have discovered Captain Tom Hoobler's murder some time ago. Henry D. Halberstadt now in jail at Fiskersburg, Va., for beating his landlord out of a board bill, and he is saluted under the name of Henry Hobler Gregory, a Brazilian nobleman.

Mr. J. H. Watters of Columbus, O., and Mrs. Julia Keller of Monticello, Ind., were married a few days ago at Cincinnati. Both parties are well known in this city, being of the Watters Party of Artists, who spent several months here where they have executed a number of the pictures. At present Mr. and Mrs. Watters are located at Cynthia's.

Mr. W. H. Corwin, representing the Standard Oil Company, had a fine display of Oil, Axle Greases and Paraffine Wax at the Germantown Fair. He captured the first premium on Paraffine Wax for its good qualities in preserving fruits, jellies and all kinds of pickles. First premium on Mica Axle Grease for the best axle grease on earth, it being a non-conductor of heat, not running off the spindle like other greases, but forming a coating on the spindle. It runs a wagon from seven to fifteen days without re-greasing. First premium on best display of Lubricating Oils.

Miss Correll entertained a number of her young friends at her pleasant home, "Orchard Farm," a few evenings since in honor of her guests and cousins, the Misses Ray of Helena. Vocal and instrumental music were the features of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served during the dancing. Among those present were Messrs. Oliver Ford of Weldon, Harry Dobyns of Mt. Gleed and W. P. Bowman of Tolleboro.

DEWEY'S AUTOGRAPH ORDER.

Master Harold R. Harris of This City the Possessor of One.

Master Harold Rosenau Harris, son of Mr. L. S. Harris of this city, is the fortunate possessor of an autograph order issued by Rear Admiral George Dewey.

It was sent to Master Harris by his uncle, Dr. Milton Rosenau, who is attached to the Quarantine Station at San Francisco, and is as follows:

FRANK J. CHENEY, U. S. N. 1. July 20th 1898. The City of Peking, Captain J. T. Smith, Master, and 121 passengers and crew, including the Master, will be in port today in ballast for San Francisco, via Nagasaki. As the port of Manila is blockaded by the forces under my command, I give this clearance myself. Very respectfully, GEORGE DEWEY, Rear Admiral U. S. N. Commanding U. S. Naval Forces on Asiatic Station.

ANOTHER GOOD WOMAN.

Death at Her Home in This City of Mrs. Catherine Daly.

After a protracted illness of heart trouble, Mrs. Catherine Daly died at her home, No. 219 West Second street, at 6:45 yesterday morning.

She was a native of County Limerick, Ireland, and her maiden name was Bryan.

She was 59 years old in December.

Coming to Mayville in 1854, on the 13th of September, 1857, she married Mr. Patrick Daly, who preceded her to the grave a few years ago.

The result of this happy union was eight children.—Mrs. Katie Giam, Miss Mollie Daly, and Messrs. Daniel, Charles, James, John, Frank and Harry Daly.

James is dead, Charles lives in Cincinnati, but all the rest reside here.

Mrs. Daly was a consistent Christian, a devoted wife and loving mother, and as a neighbor she was kind and sympathetic, beloved by all who knew her.

The funeral will take place from St. Patrick's Church tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem Mass will be celebrated by the Rev. Father A. T. Ennis. Interment at Washington.

BOOSE DAY.

To Be Observed By Schools Throughout the State on October 21st.

The Rebecca Bryan Boone Chapter D. A. R. of Covington is making preparations to celebrate the celebration of Daniel Boone Day in all the schools throughout the state of Kentucky.

The allotted day is October 22, but as that day this year falls on Saturday, Friday, October 21, has been selected.

Special programs, embracing patriotic songs and recitations, will be rendered by the pupils, also, short talks on Daniel Boone by the teachers.

Collections will be taken up and the proceeds used in restoring the Boone Monument in Frankfort, which has been greatly marred and defaced by relic hunters. The committee on reconstruction of the monument consists of Colonel R. T. Durrill of Louisville, Colonel H. F. Farney of Cincinnati and General D. W. Lindsay and E. L. Samuel of Frankfort.

The cost of the work is estimated at $2,000. First a fence will be placed about the monument to protect it from future injury, and the Italian base-reliefs will be replaced by bronze panels and the rest of the work restored in the original material.

Worth Saving.

Comparison of cost of gas at main office Western Union Telegraph Company, San Francisco, using the Welshbach System, with same period in previous year while using ordinary burners, shows a saving of over 50 per cent.:

For month ending January 1st	1898.	1897.	Saving.
January, 1st to 31st	$22.30	$11.29	$11.01

LASTING PEACE.

The Czar of Russia Makes a Proposition for an International Conference.

PEACE AMONG THE POWERS WANTED.

A Termination of the Progressive Increase in the Armaments Proposed by the Czar.

With Russia to the Lead in Such a Step Germany, France and the Other Nations May Follow—Views of Some European Papers.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The czar's proposition for an international conference for the purpose of securing real and lasting peace among the powers and the termination of the progressive increase in armaments, as conveyed in a note from Count Muravoff, the Russian foreign minister, to the foreign diplomats at St. Petersburg, is likely to produce a sensation throughout Europe, and coming from such a quarter and with such evident sincerity of purpose, it is likely to have important effects.

There is no doubt that with Russia taking the lead in such a step, Germany, France and the other nations will be ready to follow.

ROME, Aug. 29.—The czar's note has made a profound impression here. Some of the newspapers applaud, while others greet the communication with reserve or distrust.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The Daily Graphic Monday morning referring to the proposal of Emperor Nicholas, says: "It would be idle to attempt to ignore the many and grave difficulties standing in the way of the attainment of the czar's wishes but it can not be possible to doubt the sincerity of the magnanimous proposal."

The Standard says, speaking editorially of the czar's proposal:

"In England at least respect and sympathy will be felt for the proposal. It is a conception well worthy of the young sovereign. It is painfully obvious that there are enormous difficulties to be overcome which it is possible the czar in his ardent and humane enthusiasm has not maturely considered. It is a vision which has occurred to many minds, but has always had to be dismissed as a mere dream. The nations are not likely to cast away the sword unless they have a better warrant than paper proposals and conventions. Moreover, the moment does not seem altogether propitious. New armed nations are arising in Asia and America whom it might not be easy to convince of the safety and desirability of abandoning the enterprise on which they have embarked with so much energy."

Enumerating the many obstacles to the attainment of the object sought, the Standard suggests that the czar has the matter largely in his own hands, adding:

"If Russia would abandon her menacing and aggressive policy in China and elsewhere, the era of universal peace would be perceptibly nearer."

ROME, Aug. 29.—The belief here is that the czar first obtained Austrian and German assent to the conference. The papers admit the extraordinary importance of the document and pay tribute to the humanitarian motives. The Tribune thinks Germany and Italy will consent, but France will disapprove of her ally's action.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The Figaro believes that the conference will assemble, because the czar would not have risked a refusal. It believes, however, that the aspiration is chimerical.

The Gaulois thinks the proposal a natural one from Russia, because the immense armament imposed upon her is the principal obstacle to her development. The Gaulois says: "France would not gain what Russia and the other powers would by disarmament. Universal peace has been often proposed, but never realized."

Le Journal thinks the conference, instead of realizing the czar's hopes, will rather accentuate national antagonism, if it does not lead to demands totally inimical to the world's peace.

Murdered Man's Wife Found.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 29.—The body of Tony Foster was found in a lonely ravine on a hillside near Parkersburg, Sunday afternoon, with five bullet holes in it. He was murdered Friday afternoon, supposed by John Nuch, who had threatened to kill Foster on account of his affection for Nuch's wife. Nuch has been arrested and lodged in jail.

President May a Restful Day.
SOMERSET, Pa., Aug. 29.—President McKinley came to Somerset to pass a restful day and he has certainly accomplished that purpose. Providence provided fine weather in fact the most delightful day of the season here, and the president took advantage of it.

K. T. Hooper Postponed.
SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 29.—The meeting of the grand commandery, Ohio night Templars, here has been postponed from September 7 to September 14 on account of the national A. R. encampment at Cincinnati.

EX-GOV. MATTHEWS DEAD.

He Passed Away Peacefully, surrounded by His Wife and Other Members of His Immediate Family.

WINGATE, Ind., Aug. 29.—At 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the quiet McHenry home, where he was taken immediately after his sudden affliction, ex-Gov. Claude Matthews passed away peacefully, surrounded by his wife and all the other members of his immediate family.

There was prayer service, accompanied by the singing of hymns, at the bedside of the dying ex-governor. Mrs. Matthews was very much affected, and stated that she would give anything in the world if her husband would manifest by a single word his faith in Jesus. About 3 o'clock the minister in the course of the services aided the dying man if he believed in Jesus. The answer, as plainly as any one could articulate it, was "Yes." The three physicians regarded this answer as miraculous, as all agreed that the particular part of the brain affected by the paralysis was the ex-governor would probably never have talked had he lived. It was the only word he spoke after he was stricken. He immediately lapsed into a profound coma from which he did not recover before he passed away at 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Matthews started from Wingate Monday morning with the remains of her husband and will arrive at Clinton, Ind., at 1:30 in the afternoon.

From Clinton the party will go direct to Hazel Bluff, the home of the dead ex-governor.

Out of respect to the expressed wish of Gov. Matthews the body will not be taken to Indianapolis to lie in state at the capital. The funeral will occur Wednesday afternoon at an hour to be hereafter determined, and will be held in the beautiful grove adjoining the cemetery, as there is no church or other edifice in Clinton of sufficient size to accommodate the immense crowd that will desire to attend the funeral.

Monday the mayor of Clinton will issue a proclamation to the merchants and others of the city calling upon them to close their places of business Wednesday so that everybody may be given an opportunity to attend the funeral of their beloved fellow townsman.

While the arrangements for the funeral have not all been completed it is understood that the services in the grove will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Sanders, of Clinton, assisted by Rev. J. A. Milburn, of Second Presbyterian church, of Indianapolis, who was Gov. Matthews' pastor during his eight years' residence in the capital city. The remains will be interred in the family lot in the cemetery near Clinton, where his son, who died while attending the Atlanta exposition, is buried.

Mrs. Matthews is bearing up surprisingly well under the strain of her terrible affliction, but friends fear she will suffer after the funeral.

Mrs. Matthews received hundreds of telegrams and messages of condolence Sunday. Gov. Mount expressed the sorrow of the state at the sudden death of the ex-governor and requested that the remains be brought to Indianapolis to lie in state at the capital.

In this he was joined by Mayor Taggart and other prominent citizens. To the governor and mayor Mrs. Matthews replied that Mr. Matthews has often said to his family that which he died he wanted no pomp nor parade, and would not like to have his body lie in state. Hence other and more unostentatious arrangements have been made for the funeral. Gov. Mount and staff will attend the funeral at Clinton and a special train will leave Indianapolis Wednesday morning to carry state officials and others.

Gov. Matthews was born in Bath county, Kentucky, December 14, 1843. He left Kentucky in 1868 and settled in Vermilion county, Indiana, where he had a farm of 3,000 acres. The governor served a term in the legislature in 1870. In 1890 he was nominated and elected secretary of state and in 1892 was chosen governor.

Soldiers' Train Wrecked.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 29.—A wreck of a train bearing soldiers to Huntsville is reported on the Louisville & Nashville near here. One man is said to have been fatally injured. The troops are said to be from New York en route from Ferdinand to Huntsville.

Two enlisted men of the 69th New York volunteers were instantly killed and six seriously injured in a wreck which occurred on the Louisville and Nashville near here Sunday night.

Winna Dewey Condition.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Aug. 29.—The condition of Mrs. Winna Dewey here who is critically ill here, was slightly improved Sunday. At a consultation Saturday by Dr. John A. Wilson and Dr. Baese, of New York, her illness was pronounced to be cancerous. Prayers were offered Sunday for her recovery in the Episcopal and Catholic churches here.

The Report Denied.

PARIS, Aug. 29.—The report that the American cruiser Bruix had foundered in the Indian Ocean has been without foundation. The Bruix is now at Saigon, capital of French Cochinchina.

AMERICAN ARMY.

Chairman Hull, of the House Committee on Military, Giving It Much Attention.

HE IS NOW IN THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Will Introduce a Bill in the Coming Congress to Correct the Defects in the Existing Law.

Also to Increase the Strength of the Army on a Peace Footing to 100,000 Enlisted Men—Mr. Hull is Confident the Measure Will Pass.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—One of the important matters which will occupy the attention of congress at its next session will be legislation to increase the strength of the permanent military establishment, says the Washington correspondent of the Tribune. Chairman Hull, of the committee on military affairs of the house of representatives, who is in Washington, where he expects to remain until early in November, is devoting much attention to the subject, and has already discovered that the war has removed some of the more formidable obstacles which hindered and finally prevented the enactment of a satisfactory law for the organization and increase of the army at the last congress.

THE AMERICAN PEACE COMMISSION.

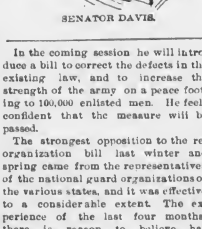

JUSTICE WHITE.

WHITELAW REID.

SECRETARY DAY, CHAIRMAN.

SENATOR DAVIS.

SENATOR FRYE.

In the coming session he will introduce a bill to correct the defects in the existing law, and to increase the strength of the army on a peace footing to 100,000 enlisted men. He feels confident that the measure will be passed.

The strongest opposition to the reorganization bill last winter and spring came from the representatives of the national guard organizations of the various states, and it was effective to a considerable extent. The experience of the last four months, there is reason to believe, has convinced that element, as well as a great many congressmen who surrendered to its influence, that the opposition was ill judged and unreasonable, and that a reasonably strong regular army, thoroughly equipped and organized on a modern basis, would be a benefit, rather than a drawback, to the national guard organizations.

Will Sail on the Sevens.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The Porto Rico military commission will sail for Porto Rico on the Sevens, which at present is one of the vessels of the war department, but probably will be transferred to the navy. Adm. Schley will hoist his flag on her while the Brooklyn will go into dock for repairs.
